Madrasa Quality Education Scheme

Grant support for recognised madrasas in Madhya Pradesh to pay teacher honorarium and run remedial teaching for children, with the cost shared by the Centre and the state.

What you may get

Eligible madrasas receive grants to pay honorarium to their teachers and to give remedial teaching to pupils. The Government of India bears 60 percent and the state 40 percent of the money, which is sent to the District Education Officer offices through PFMS and the bank.

Who it is for

Madrasas in Madhya Pradesh that have run for three years and hold three years of recognition from the Madrasa Board. Parents and students do not apply directly.

Main conditions

- The madrasa must have been running for three years.
- The madrasa must hold three years of recognition from the Madhya Pradesh Madrasa Board.
- The scheme is meant for minority community students, boys and girls, who study in such madrasas.
