प्रधानमंत्री मत्स्य सम्पदा योजना - बचत-सह-राहत

A savings-cum-relief scheme in Madhya Pradesh that supports members of fishermen cooperative societies with money during the fishing ban season.

What you may get

A selected member who saves Rs 150 a month for 10 months, Rs 1,500 in all, gets Rs 4,500 during the ban season, paid in two instalments.

Who it is for

BPL members aged 18 to 60 of a registered, working fishermen cooperative society in Madhya Pradesh.

Main conditions

- The member must save Rs 150 a month for 10 working months of the year, Rs 1,500 in total, in a post office or bank.
- The member must be an active member of a full-time registered and working fishermen cooperative society.
- The member must be BPL and aged between 18 and 60 years.

How to apply

1. Become an active member of a registered fishermen cooperative society and start the monthly savings in a post office or bank.
2. Contact the Assistant Director, Fisheries of your district, the designated officer. The page says the process runs as per rules and gives 30 days as the time limit.
3. The page gives the fisheries portal as the online link.
