Shramik Sahitya Puraskar Yojana

The Madhya Pradesh Labour Welfare Board rewards workers who write, if the worker of a covered establishment sends in an original piece of writing on the given theme.

What you may get

An award of Rs 5,000 together with a citation and a memento, given on the recommendation of the selection committee.

Who it is for

Workers of industrial units and establishments covered by the Madhya Pradesh Labour Welfare Board who enjoy writing and have written a literary piece on the set theme.

Main conditions

- You must work in an industrial unit or establishment that falls within the Labour Welfare Board's coverage.
- You must send a literary piece that you wrote yourself, on the theme the Board has fixed, along with the application.
- The application has to be made in the prescribed format, within 30 days of the invitation notice being published.

How to apply

1. Wait for the Board to publish its invitation for applications; the window is 30 days from that publication.
2. Write your own piece on the given theme and fill in the application in the prescribed format.
3. Send both to the Board's regional officer, such as the welfare officer or welfare inspector, who is named as the contact point.
4. The selection committee studies the entries and recommends the awardees. No fee is charged.
