Tasar Resham Vikas evam Vistar

Madhya Pradesh helps local farmers in tasar districts take up tasar silk rearing on Arjun and Saj trees in forest areas as a source of self-employment.

What you may get

Beneficiaries get a plantation area of Arjun or Saj trees per hectare, rearing equipment, healthy rearing groups at concessional rates and Rs 9 per healthy group for lime and disinfectant material. Their produce is bought at fixed rates, with payment made online by the Madhya Pradesh Silk Federation.

Who it is for

Local farmers of any category and income level who are willing to work in forest areas in the districts where tasar silk activity runs.

Main conditions

- The applicant must be a local farmer, whatever the category or income level.
- The applicant must be willing to work in forest areas.
- Tasar activity runs in 17 districts: Narmadapuram, Harda, Betul, Chhindwara, Balaghat, Seoni, Mandla, Dindori, Narsinghpur, Jabalpur, Katni, Shahdol, Anuppur, Sidhi, Singrauli, Jhabua and Alirajpur.

How to apply

1. Apply through the nearest silk (resham) centre in your district.
2. Apply before the work starts in July, which is the time limit on the scheme page.
3. The District Silk Officer is the designated officer and appeals go to the Silk Directorate. No application fee is charged.
