Uttam Shramik Puraskar Yojana

The Madhya Pradesh Labour Welfare Board gives an award to an excellent, disciplined and skilled worker of an industrial unit or establishment that comes under the Board.

What you may get

An award of Rs 15,000 together with a citation and a memento, given on the recommendation of the selection committee.

Who it is for

Excellent, disciplined and skilled workers employed in industrial units and establishments that come under the Madhya Pradesh Labour Welfare Board.

Main conditions

- You must work in an industrial unit or establishment that falls within the Labour Welfare Board's coverage.
- The selection committee picks workers who are excellent, disciplined and skilled in their work.
- The application is sent through your employer in the prescribed format, within 30 days of the invitation notice being published.

How to apply

1. Wait for the Board to publish its invitation for applications; the window is 30 days from that publication.
2. Ask your employer to forward your application in the prescribed format.
3. The selection committee studies the applications and recommends the awardees, who then receive the award.
4. The Board's regional officers, such as the welfare officer or welfare inspector, are named as contact points. No fee is charged.
