CM KISAN

CM KISAN is an Odisha state scheme that pays money to small and marginal farm families and to landless agricultural households.

What you may get

Small and marginal farmers in rural areas get Rs 4,000 a year under CM KISAN for two crop seasons. With the Rs 6,000 from PM-KISAN this makes Rs 10,000 a year. Landless agricultural households get Rs 12,500 in three instalments as livelihood support.

Who it is for

Small and marginal farmers in rural Odisha and landless agricultural households.

Main conditions

- Small and marginal farmers from rural areas can receive the Rs 4,000 crop help.
- Landless agricultural households are covered by a separate livelihood support grant.
- An AgriStack Farmer ID is needed to register on the CM KISAN portal.
- Medium and large farmers get help only from PM-KISAN, not from CM KISAN.

Documents

- AgriStack Farmer ID
