Marriage Assistance Scheme for Differently Abled Persons

Tamil Nadu gives marriage assistance and a gold coin when a differently abled person marries, or when a person without disability marries a visually impaired, orthopaedically differently abled or speech and hearing impaired person.

What you may get

Rs 25,000 in total along with an 8 gram gold coin for the Thirumangalyam. The amount is Rs 50,000 with the gold coin if either spouse has completed a degree or diploma.

Who it is for

Differently abled persons in Tamil Nadu who marry another differently abled person, and persons without disability who marry a person with a visual, orthopaedic or speech and hearing impairment.

Main conditions

- One spouse is differently abled and the other has no disability (visual, orthopaedic or speech and hearing impairment), or both spouses are differently abled.
- Both partners are above 18 years of age.
- The higher amount applies only if either spouse holds a degree or diploma.

Documents

- National identity card for differently abled persons
- Proof of marriage
- Age proof

How to apply

1. Collect the prescribed application format from the District Differently Abled Welfare Office.
2. Fill it and submit it to the District Differently Abled Welfare Officer with the identity card and the marriage and age proofs.
3. For complaints, write to the Assistant Director (DAW) at the Commissionerate for Welfare of the Differently Abled, Chennai.
