Government Rehabilitation Homes for Leprosy Cured Differently Abled Persons

Tamil Nadu runs 10 government homes where people cured of leprosy who cannot look after themselves can live with care. Spouses of affected persons can also be admitted.

What you may get

Residents get a safe place to stay, medical care, a blanket and two sets of clothes each year, and Rs 100 a day for nutrition. Artificial limbs, spectacles and special footwear are given as needed. Rs 2,000 is sanctioned for funeral expenses if a resident dies.

Who it is for

Persons affected by leprosy and their spouses in Tamil Nadu who need residential care and have no support.

Main conditions

- The applicant is a person affected by leprosy, or the spouse of such a person.
- A medical certificate must confirm the leprosy.
- The homes are meant for persons who cannot do daily tasks alone because of damage to muscles and nerves and who are socially abandoned.

Documents

- Medical certificate to confirm leprosy
