Rural Girls Incentive to School Students belonging to Most Backward Classes and Denotified Communities

Tamil Nadu pays a yearly cash incentive to rural girls from Most Backward Classes and Denotified Communities in Classes 3 to 6. It aims to keep girls in school.

What you may get

A girl in Classes 3 to 5 gets Rs 500 a year, and a girl in Class 6 gets Rs 1,000 a year. The money is meant to prevent dropouts among rural girls.

Who it is for

Girls from rural areas who are in Class 3 to Class 6 at a Government or Government-aided school and are from an MBC or DNC family.

Main conditions

- The girl belongs to a Most Backward Class or a Denotified Community.
- She studies in Classes 3 to 6 in a Government or Government-aided school in a rural area.
- The parental annual income is within Rs 1.00 lakh.
