Putra / Putri Shiksha Sahayata (Uttarakhand Construction Workers Welfare Board, education assistance for workers' children)

The Uttarakhand construction workers' board gives yearly education money for up to two children of a registered construction worker, from school to degree and professional courses.

What you may get

A yearly amount is paid for the education of the worker's children, with a higher amount for higher classes and degree courses. For professional courses such as ITI and polytechnic, the fee is paid as in government institutions. The whole year's help is paid in one go to the worker's bank account.

Who it is for

Construction workers of Uttarakhand registered with the Building and Other Construction Workers Welfare Board, for their children's studies.

Main conditions

- The worker is registered with the Uttarakhand Building and Other Construction Workers Welfare Board and holds the worker card
- Help is given for two children of the worker only
- The application is made in the same financial year in which the child is admitted to the class, within the window set by the board
- The worker has not taken help for the same purpose from any other department

Documents

- Worker card and the worker's Aadhaar card
- Mobile number and bank account
- Children's Aadhaar cards
- Attested copy of last year's marksheet (not needed for class 1)
- Certificate of study from the school or college and a self-declaration
- Certificate that no help was taken from another department

How to apply

1. Apply online through a Shramik Suvidha Kendra (workers' facilitation centre) with the listed documents and a self-declaration.
2. The department checks the application.
3. If it is found in order, the benefit is given as described above.
