Prasuti Arthik Sahayata (Uttarakhand Construction Workers Welfare Board, maternity help)

The Uttarakhand construction workers' board gives money at the birth of a child to a registered worker, for up to two children.

What you may get

A fixed amount is paid for each child born to a registered construction worker, or to the wife of a registered worker, for the first two children only. The money goes into the worker's bank account after the department checks the application.

Who it is for

Construction workers of Uttarakhand registered with the Building and Other Construction Workers Welfare Board, for the birth of a child (first two children only).

Main conditions

- The worker is registered with the Uttarakhand Building and Other Construction Workers Welfare Board and holds the worker card
- The benefit is given only for the births of two children, not for a third child
- The application is made within a set time after the birth
- The worker has not taken help for the same purpose from any other department

Documents

- Worker card
- ANC card and a certificate about the birth from a medical officer
- Handwritten statement that no help was taken from another department
- Self-declaration

How to apply

1. Apply online through a Shramik Suvidha Kendra (workers' facilitation centre) with the listed documents and a self-declaration.
2. The department checks the application.
3. If it is found in order, the benefit is given as described above.
