Divyang Vyaktiyon ko Rajya StarIya Puraskar (State-Level Award for Persons with Disabilities, Uttarakhand)

Uttarakhand gives a state-level award, with a cash prize, to outstanding persons with disabilities on World Disability Day, 3 December.

What you may get

A state-level award with a citation, a medal and a cash prize paid by bank draft or cheque, given in each category on World Disability Day, 3 December. The categories are disabled employee, outstanding sportsperson and best self-employed person.

Who it is for

Persons with disabilities in Uttarakhand who work as employees, excel in sport, or run the best self-employment venture.

Main conditions

- The applicant has a disability certificate
- The applicant belongs to one of the three award categories: disabled employee, outstanding sportsperson, or best self-employed person
- The application describes the special work done by the applicant

Documents

- Disability certificate
- Description of the special work done by the applicant

How to apply

1. Applications are invited through newspaper notices before World Disability Day on 3 December.
2. Submit the application form with the disability certificate and the description of your work at the office of the District Social Welfare Officer.
3. The district checks the application and the Director, Social Welfare recommends it; a state-level screening committee then selects the winner in each category.
