Eeja-Boi Shagun Yojana (Uttarakhand, incentive for mothers after delivery in a government hospital)

Eeja-Boi Shagun Yojana pays an incentive to mothers of Uttarakhand who deliver in a government hospital and stay there for 48 hours.

What you may get

Mothers who stay in a government hospital for 48 hours after delivery are paid an incentive amount for the safe health of mother and baby. The hospital processes the payment, which reaches the mother's bank account.

Who it is for

Mothers who are permanent residents of Uttarakhand and deliver in a government hospital.

Main conditions

- The mother is a permanent resident of Uttarakhand
- The delivery takes place in a government hospital
- The mother stays in the hospital for 48 hours after the delivery

Documents

- Aadhaar card
- Bank account details

How to apply

1. Deliver in a government hospital and stay there for 48 hours.
2. The doctor of the hospital asks for the mother's Aadhaar card and bank account details.
3. The hospital starts the payment, and the amount later reaches the mother's bank account.
