Hathkargha Katai-Bunai Mahila Karmkaron ko Sahayata Yojana (Assistance to Women Handloom Spinning and Weaving Workers, Uttarakhand)

Uttarakhand pays most of the cost of a handloom, pitloom or framloom and other equipment for selected women weavers and spinners.

What you may get

Selected women workers get handloom, pitloom, framloom or other equipment, with the department paying most of the cost and the woman paying a small share. The department's share is sent to the woman's bank account after the Directorate of Industries approves the list.

Who it is for

Women workers whose family trade is weaving or spinning, or who know handloom work but have no loom, and who are registered with the central or state government.

Main conditions

- The woman's ancestral trade is weaving or spinning, and she is registered as a woman worker with the central or state government
- Priority goes to women who have handloom experience but cannot weave because they have no loom
- A committee under the General Manager of the District Industries Centre selects the women on set norms

Documents

- Aadhaar card and bank account
- Registration certificate if registered with the state government, and other papers or photographs showing the woman is a handicraft worker or weaver

How to apply

1. Get the application form from the General Manager, District Industries Centre of your district, or from the department website doiuk.org.
2. Submit the form with the documents to the District Industries Centre.
3. The committee under the General Manager selects the women and sends the list to the Directorate of Industries, after which the department's share is paid to the woman's account.
