Old Age Pension Scheme (Uttarakhand Social Welfare)

Uttarakhand pays a monthly pension to senior citizens aged 60 or more whose income is low or who hold a BPL card and who are chosen in the Gram Sabha open meeting.

What you may get

A pension of Rs 1,500 a month for each eligible beneficiary. The scheme covers both husband and wife if each is eligible.

Who it is for

Senior citizens of Uttarakhand aged 60 or more with income up to Rs 4,000 a month from all sources, or with a BPL card.

Main conditions

- The applicant is 60 years old or more.
- The applicant's income from all sources is not more than Rs 4,000 a month, or the applicant holds a BPL card.
- The applicant has to be chosen at an open Gram Sabha meeting. In urban areas the proposal comes through the councillor.

Documents

- Family register from the VPDO for rural applicants, or ration card for urban applicants
- Online income certificate showing income up to Rs 4,000 a month from all sources, or BPL card
- Proposal selected in the open meeting of the Gram Panchayat or councillor
- Certified photo of the applicant (from the Pradhan, VPDO, ward member or councillor)
- Passbook of a CBS bank account
- Aadhaar card

How to apply

1. Apply online on the department's pension portal (ssp.uk.gov.in), on the Umang mobile app, or on the Apni Sarkar portal (eservices.uk.gov.in).
2. Keep the listed documents ready as scans before you start the online form.
3. The pension is meant for people chosen at the Gram Sabha open meeting, so get your proposal passed there and attach its copy.
