Sanskrit Shodh Chhatravritti Yojana (Sanskrit Research Scholarship for PhD Students, Uttarakhand Sanskrit Academy)

Uttarakhand gives a yearly research scholarship for three years to PhD students of Sanskrit in state universities, chosen on NET marks.

What you may get

A fixed number of registered PhD students of Sanskrit in the state's universities get a yearly research scholarship for 3 years. Students have to renew it with an application every session or year.

Who it is for

PhD students registered or studying for a PhD in Sanskrit in any university of Uttarakhand, who have cleared the NET exam.

Main conditions

- The student is registered for a PhD in Sanskrit in a university of Uttarakhand
- The student has a NET marksheet, since selection is on the highest NET marks
- Seats are limited and split among the general category, Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribe, and economically weaker section certificate holders
- The scholarship has to be renewed every session or year

Documents

- Aadhaar card, NET exam marksheet, educational certificates, PhD registration certificate and bank account details

How to apply

1. Watch the daily newspapers and the website of the Uttarakhand Sanskrit Academy, which invite applications every year.
2. Apply on the prescribed form with the listed documents.
3. A selection committee checks the applications and eligible research students get the yearly scholarship.
