Scholarship Programme for Scheduled Castes (Pre-Matric and Post-Matric), Uttarakhand Social Welfare Department

Scholarships for Scheduled Caste students in Uttarakhand, from class 1 to post-matric courses, paid by the Social Welfare Department into the student's bank account.

What you may get

Pre-matric: Rs 50 a month for classes 1 to 5 and Rs 80 a month for classes 6 to 8. Classes 9 and 10: Rs 275 a month for day scholars and Rs 600 for hostellers, for up to 10 months. Post-matric: Rs 4,000 to Rs 13,500 for hostellers and Rs 2,500 to Rs 7,000 for day scholars, depending on the course group (rates effective from 2023-24; the page does not say whether they are yearly or monthly).

Who it is for

Scheduled Caste students of Uttarakhand studying in recognised schools, colleges and institutes.

Main conditions

- You belong to the Scheduled Caste category and study as a regular student in a recognised school in the state (pre-matric) or in a recognised institution in or outside the state (post-matric, for residents of Uttarakhand).
- You passed the previous class and you are not getting any other scholarship.
- For classes 9 and 10 and for post-matric courses, parents' or guardians' yearly income is not above Rs 2,50,000.
- Children of people in unclean occupations (leather flaying, tanning, manual scavenging) get a special scholarship of Rs 8,000 a year, with no parental income limit.

How to apply

1. Pre-matric students apply in their own school. Post-matric students apply in their own institution, as the page directs.
2. The page gives 31 May as the last date for post-matric applications, and 31 July for new admissions.
3. The scholarship amount is paid into the student's bank account.
