Yuva Dalon ko Arthik Sahayata (Financial Assistance to Yuvak and Mahila Mangal Dals for Employment-Oriented Businesses, Uttarakhand)

Uttarakhand gives financial help to registered Yuvak and Mahila Mangal Dals to start employment-oriented businesses from a list of 18 trades.

What you may get

A registered Yuvak or Mahila Mangal Dal that has not taken the scheme before gets financial help for starting one of the listed businesses, such as dairy, tent and utensil hire, sound system hire, flour mill, photocopy machine, mushroom or vegetable growing, sewing, animal rearing or repair work. The help is a part of the project cost, and the group pays the rest.

Who it is for

Yuvak Mangal Dals and Mahila Mangal Dals attached to the Youth Welfare and Provincial Rakshak Dal Department, whose members are permanent residents of Uttarakhand.

Main conditions

- The group is a Yuvak or Mahila Mangal Dal attached to the department and has not taken benefit of this scheme earlier
- All members of the group are permanent residents of Uttarakhand
- The group has a plan for a listed business, with proof of building or land and the estimated cost
- The help covers only part of the project cost, and the group arranges the remaining part

Documents

- Group photograph of all members, plan of the business and estimate of the cost, and proof of building or land
- Registration number of the group, name, birth certificate, educational certificate and permanent residence certificate of every member, and the group's bank account
- Training or experience certificate for the business, and details of the family monthly income from all sources

How to apply

1. Get the application form from the Youth Welfare and Provincial Rakshak Dal officer's office and attach the listed documents.
2. Submit it through the regional officer to the District Youth Welfare Officer, who inspects the site and sends the proposal with a recommendation to the District Magistrate.
3. A committee under the District Magistrate selects the groups, and the Directorate picks at least two groups from every district and pays into the group's bank account.
