Mukhyamantri Kanya Sumangla Yojana

Uttar Pradesh pays a family money in six stages as their daughter grows, from birth to college, to support her health and studies.

What you may get

Up to Rs 25,000 in six one-time payments: Rs 5,000 at birth, Rs 2,000 after full immunisation, Rs 3,000 on joining Class 1, Rs 3,000 on joining Class 6, Rs 5,000 on joining Class 9, and Rs 7,000 on joining a degree or a diploma of at least two years after Class 10 or 12.

Who it is for

Girls from Uttar Pradesh families whose income is up to Rs 3 lakh a year.

Main conditions

- The family must live in Uttar Pradesh and have proof such as a ration card, Aadhaar, voter ID, or electricity or telephone bill.
- Family income must be Rs 3 lakh a year or less.
- At most two girls of one family can benefit, and the family should have at most two children.
- If the second delivery gives twin girls, all three girls can benefit; an adopted girl counts within the limit of two.
- For the birth stage the girl must be born on or after 1 April 2019; for the immunisation stage she must not be born before 1 April 2018.

Documents

- Proof of permanent address
- Bank account number and passbook copy of the mother, father, guardian or the girl
- Aadhaar of the applicant, father, mother and the girl (not needed for the girl in stages 1 and 2)
- Latest photo of the girl
- Stage proof such as birth certificate number, immunisation card, school admission certificate or student ID, or Class 10 or 12 marksheet and college fee receipt

How to apply

1. Open the Citizen Services Portal from the MKSY website and register; the login ID is sent to your mobile.
2. Log in, enter the girl's details and bank details, and add the girl as a beneficiary.
3. Check eligibility for the stage, fill the form and upload that stage's documents.
4. After submitting, you can view or edit the application from your login. A girl who is an adult can apply herself for stage 6.
