West Bengal Medhashree Scheme

The Medhashree Scheme gives a yearly scholarship of Rs 800 to OBC students in classes 5 to 8 in West Bengal, paid straight into the student's bank account.

What you may get

A student gets Rs 800 each year, renewed every year until class 8. The money goes directly into the student's bank account through Direct Benefit Transfer.

Who it is for

OBC students of West Bengal studying in classes 5 to 8.

Main conditions

- The student must be a permanent resident of West Bengal and belong to the OBC category.
- The student must study in classes 5 to 8 in a government, aided or recognised school.
- The student must not get another similar scholarship and must have a valid bank account.
- Family income should generally not be above Rs 2.5 lakh a year.

Documents

- Caste certificate
- Income certificate
- Aadhaar
- Bank account details

How to apply

1. The school head identifies eligible students, so ask your headmaster or headmistress about the scheme.
2. The school submits the student details on the official portal, and the form is filled online or offline.
3. Give the required documents to the school, which checks them along with the concerned department.
4. After approval the scholarship is sent to your bank account.
