Zilla Parishad Latur Mini Flour Mill for Backward-Class Rural Women

Zilla Parishad Latur gives a mini flour mill to rural women from backward-class groups, paid from its 20 percent cess fund.

What you may get

A mini flour mill is supplied to each selected rural woman, to help her earn at home. The 2024-25 sheet gives no rupee value for it.

Who it is for

Women aged 18 or more who live in rural Latur district and belong to the Scheduled Castes, Neo-Buddhists, Scheduled Tribes, Vimukta Jati or Nomadic Tribes.

Main conditions

- The applicant must be a woman from one of the groups above living in a rural part of Latur district, aged at least 18.
- Family income must be within Rs 95,000, shown by the Tahsildar income certificate in the 2024-25 sheet.
- The applicant must give an affidavit that no similar scheme benefit was taken before.
- Nobody in her family may be in government or semi-government service, shown by an affidavit.

Documents

- Income certificate from the Tahsildar
- Caste certificate
- Affidavit on earlier benefit
- Affidavit that no family member is in government or semi-government service
- Copies of ration card, Aadhaar card and the first page of the bank passbook

How to apply

1. Take the prescribed application form from your Panchayat Samiti. It is addressed to the District Social Welfare Officer, Zilla Parishad Latur, through the Block Development Officer.
2. Fill in the form, attach the documents listed here and get the Gramsevak certificate and the Extension Officer recommendation printed on the form.
3. Submit the application at the Panchayat Samiti. It checks the applications and sends the list with the Block Development Officer recommendation to the Zilla Parishad, which then makes the selection.
